

BULLYING POLICY

Policy Statement

To achieve our aims as an International School in we seek to create a safe, peaceful and caring environment in which children develop self esteem, confidence, and awareness of the needs of others so that they and their peers are able to maximise their potential. Students have a right to develop in an atmosphere of safety where they are respected and are free from all forms of speech or action which cause hurt. We place great importance on students developing within a supportive community. Bullying in all its forms is contrary to our aims and values.

Definition of bullying

- Any form of behaviour which isolates, humiliates, belittles, or which mentally or physically hurts another person.
- Any behaviour initiated by one or more persons against a victim which is deliberate and hurtful.
- Repeatedly using physical or psychological means to hurt another person.
- Bullying can take many forms. We consider the following behaviour to be bullying:

Physical:

- Hitting, kicking, punching
- Pushing, shoving, spitting
- Taking or damaging something which belongs to someone else
- Forcing others to hand over food, money or something which belongs to them.
- Making someone do something they don't want to.

Verbal:

- Name calling
- Teasing
- Threatening
- Making fun of someone because of their appearance, physical characteristics or cultural background
- Making fun of someone's actions
- Spreading rumours

Indirect: Social / Emotional

- Excluding others from the game or group
- Spreading untrue stories about others
- Taunting
- Causing someone to feel socially isolated
- Making rude gestures

Possible signs of being a bully

- May tease(repeatedly) in nasty ways, taunt, intimidate, threaten, ridicule, hit and damage belongings of other students; this may be displayed toward many students, but typically they select in particular weaker and relatively defenseless students as their targets.
- May be physically stronger than their classmates and the victims in particular; are physically effective in play activities, sports, and fights (applies particularly to boys)

- May have strong needs to dominate and subdue other students, to assert themselves with power and threat, and to get their own way; they may brag about their actual or imagined superiority.

Preventative Action

Anti-bullying education. Topics such as relationships and conflict are covered in mainstream subjects such as PSHE, English and Drama. Assemblies also address the issue. Taking an annual active part in Anti-bullying week in November.

The main aims of our anti-bullying education are:

- to encourage the development of an anti-bullying culture at ISH.
- to deliver the message: 'Bullying will not be tolerated at ISH';
- to understand what bullying is;
- to help prevent bullying;
- to outline what to do if being bullied;
- to outline consequences for the bully.
- to challenge habits which can become habitual.

Staff vigilance. If staff become aware of bullying or have any suspicions, these should be immediately reported to the student's class teacher.

Students are encouraged to report incidents of bullying affecting themselves or others. Willingness to speak out is highly valued and supported.

Parents must also raise concerns which they may have

All bullying is violence, be it physical or psychological and it is a serious infringement of the right of a child to education.

Dealing with incidents of bullying

Bullying incidents are reported to Class Teachers.

- Reported incidents are always to be investigated.
- Actual incidents are recorded in the appropriate pastoral file.
- The bully and bullied are interviewed separately. They should then be interviewed together, but the agreement and understanding of the victim must be obtained first.

The bullied is offered advice and support -

- To build the self confidence of the child.
- To confirm that they have done the right thing to speak out.
- To build trust with the adult dealing with the situation.
- They should be advised:
 - Try not to show you are upset - this is difficult
 - Try to ignore the bullying
 - Walk quickly and confidently - even if you don't feel that way inside
 - Try to be assertive
 - Get your friends together and say NO to the bully

- If you are different in any way, be proud of it - it's good to be an individual.
- Avoid being alone in places where bullying happens. If you are in danger, get away.

The bully is seen with the aim to help them understand the consequences of their actions. Bullying is known to emerge from people with low self esteem.

The bully is offered advice and support -

- To build the self confidence of the child.
